9. Competition Secretary's report

- a. The competition secretary made a proposal that the winter aggregate competitions have become somewhat of a disappointment, the constant cancelations due to the poor weather have made the competition almost incompletable. An alternate idea is to form a winter Order of Merit competition that can be run either on a full 18/15/9 holes, depending on the weather, this was agreed, full details, rules, format etc to be published later in the year.
- b. Winter handicaps: There is now an agreed process with the handicap committee that will help to monitor and adjust handicaps throughout the winter period.

10. Monday Club report

- a. David Dandie reported that the Monday Club is doing well with very good attendances.

11. Welfare report

- a. Report discussed.

12. Any Other business

- a. It was agreed that we would hold a Seniors past Captains event, it would be a 9-hole competition, presentation and a meal in the Course View restaurant, date is provisionally set for Thursday September 14th. Secretary to contact necessary people.
- b. Question asked as to when General Play scores can be entered into the England Golf app, this will be when qualifiers re-commence, which should be by the end of March.

13. Meeting closed
